Syracuse 8 discussion and book signing

Friday, October 28, 2016

5–8 p.m.

Museum of African American History
46 Joy Street, Beacon Hill, Boston

Join us for a reception and conversation about sports, race, and society focusing on David Marc's book, Leveling the Playing Field: The Story of the Syracuse 8. Bostonians and SU alumni Dana Harrell '72, G'73 and A. Alif Muhammad '71 will be joined by other members of the group to discuss their controversial stance at the University, as they petitioned for racial equality for their 1969-70 football team.

Returning to his roots

After 10 years working in Las Vegas, Zack Goldberg '05 was drawn back to his native Boston, family and friends, and the city's thriving startup culture. Now, as vice president of the SU Alumni Club of Boston, and head of driver operations for Fasten, a ride-sharing company, he's sharing his knowledge and connections with Syracuse alumni and students alike.
